JULIANNE SWARTZ

If you've ever longed for sculptures to whisper their secrets to you, this show is just the ticket. Gathering a significant group of indoor and outdoor installations, the midcareer retrospective "Julianne Swartz: How Deep Is Your" samples the New York-based artist's subtle and elusive oeuvre. Works rely on mirrors and lenses to reveal hidden spaces and activities, tubes and low-tech mikes to broadcast quiet conversations and mysterious sounds, and vinyl wall drawings to direct visitors' movements.

DeCordova Sculpture Park and Museum, Lincoln, Mass., Sept. 2-Dec. 30; Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art, Oct. 12, 2013-Feb. 2, 2014.
